

Alleged Shoplifter Given Suspended Jail Sentence

Thomas E. Sholler, Bristol Terrace II., Ordered to Stay Out of Store Here

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 17 — Declaring the prisoner was a "jail case" and the only reason he wasn't being sent to prison was because of his nearly blind father and sick mother, President Judge Hiram H. Keller, Wednesday, gave Thomas E. Sholler, 23, 1004 Court G, Bristol Terrace 2, a suspended prison sentence of six to 23 months and ordered him to stay out of the Auto Boys store in Bristol.

Sholler, who was employed at Kaiser Metal Products, Inc., where his take-home pay was $54, pleaded guilty to stealing Christmas balls, toy piano, electric iron and 70 records.

The defendant admitted he took the electric iron home just to show to his mother and the toy was for his godchild.

"Petty thieving in stores is all too common and that sort of 'snitching' leads to worse things," said President Judge Keller.

Leon Plavin, manager of the Auto Boys Store, placed the value of the articles stolen at $125. "We didn't relish Sholler coming into the store and I had several clerks watch him."

Edward A. Leavitt, a clerk, testified he saw Sholler pick up the electric iron. Holman W. Fite, another clerk, saw Sholler take small articles and then the would vanish into a large paper bag which he was carrying. All of the stolen merchandise has been recovered.

Patrolman Henry Spinelli, of the Bristol Police Department, made the investigation and arrest on Dec. 23. About 100 records were found in the defendant's home. Plavin estimated that between 65 and 70 of them had been stolen.

Sholler testified his father's sight is so impaired he can't get work and that his mother has had two strokes. He supports his parents.

Sholler served in the Army and has an honorable discharge. He testified he was buying a TV set and

Levittown Civic Ass'n To Work to Get Street Lights

LEVITTOWN, Jan. 17 — The directors of the Levittown Civic Association held their first meeting Thursday night, with the executive committee, and resolved that the Association do all in its power to have the streets of the new community lighted as soon as lamps are installed.

The resolution, offered by John Scanlin, director from Pinewood, was approved by a vote of nine to seven. "We want these lights turned on immediately," Scanlin said. "We should go before the Levitt organization and the various municipal groups and find out the reason for the delay."

The officers referred the resolution to Bernard Korson, chairman of the Health and Safety Committee, and asked him to report on his results at the regular meeting of the Association Tuesday night. In discussing the lighting situation, the officers said street lights have been installed in eight sections of Levittown, but only two are illuminated.

Paul R. Beckert, president of the Civic Association, and Edward Hough, secretary, opposed adopting the resolution. Beckert said the measure should be placed before the entire membership, and Hough urged that a special committee be appointed to study the situation.

Two directors were named from Greenbrook, Leonard Sarner and Mitchell Milnick. Dr. John McEwan, Jr., of Willowood, was also elected a director.

Young Woman Hurt; Car Hits Light Standard

A Levittown woman, Miss Iva Gaskel, 23, of 63 Peartree lane, suffered bruises of both legs, injuries to the head and two chipped teeth early this morning when the auto of Edmund Lyons, Phila., in which she was a passenger, swerved to avoid hitting another car near Route 13 and Beaver street.

The car crashed head-on into a traffic light standard, according to Bristol borough police.

Lyons' car was traveling west on Route 13 and was near Beaver street, when the unidentified driver of another car traveling in the same direction, swerved toward Lyons' car. Lyons' swerved to avoid a collision and crashed into the light standard, according to the report. Considerable damage was caused to the car and the light standard. Officers Julius Sabol and William McCahan investigated.

SENATOR MARTIN'S "RIGHT HAND" AT WASHINGTON

The above photograph shows the administrative assistant of Pennsylvania's senior U. S. Senator, Edward Martin, at his desk in the Senator's official suite. He is the Hon. George I. Bloom, who formerly was Secretary to the Governor under Martin when the latter was Governor of Pennsylvania. The picture was taken expressly for the accompanying article by the author, J. Paul Pedigo.

Powerful Pennsylvania

U. S. Senator Edward Martin is Busy Man Representing a Major Industrial and Agricultural State at Nation's Capital

(This is the second of a series of articles concerning key Pennsylvania figures at Washington of special interest to Bucks Countians.)

By J. Paul Pedigo
WASHINGTON, Jan. 17—U. S. Senator Edward Martin is well known to residents of Bucks County, having spoken here many times, both during the course of political campaigns and on other occasions.

He is tall and carries himself with rigid military bearing despite his age, which is 73.

As a public speaker he is earnest and methodical, largely unemotional except at the close of his talk when he is apt to lay his manuscript aside and make a stirring extemporaneous restatement of his case.

In Washington Senator Martin occupies a large and imposing suite on the first floor of the Senate Office Building—three large rooms which are, in order, the reception room, the secretarial room, and the Senator's private office. In addition, he has been assigned another nearby suite because of the extra duties he faces as chairman of more than one committee, and he also has storage rooms for files and supplies.

Representing as he does one of the nation's major industrial and agricultural states, and being the senior senator of that state, this is by no means too much space for Experiences at a work camp in Germany were shared by Edward F. Babbott, teacher of English at George School, Newtown, when he appeared at the meeting of The Travel Club yesterday afternoon in the club home. Mr. Babbott served as substitute speaker when Miss Iris H. el Masri, an Egyptian doing graduate work at the University of Penna., Phila., found it impossible to keep her appointment here due to the transportation strike in Phila.

The guest was introduced by Mrs. Harry T. Neher, chairman of the Council of International Clubs.

In recounting his experiences, Mr. Babbott had a most interested audience as evidenced by the questions asked and the expressions of appreciation at the conclusion of his talk. He explained at the outset that his presentation would consist of reading of basic highlights of the work camps, the sharing of "random thoughts," and the reading of a letter from one of the French boys who had participated in the camp.

As a back-ground he mentioned

Methodism to Locate A Church at Levittown

Bishop Fred P. Corson, resident Bishop of Phila. area of the Methodist Church, announces that members of Phila. and the New Jersey conferences are joining in a campaign to raise $1,500,000, principally to build new churches. Similar campaigns are being conducted throughout the country, as the denomination recognizes that population movement of vast proportions is taking place in America.

The Church is attempting to follow the people as they change their homes, even as it did in other eras of our country's history. Not for several decades have so many people moved in so short a time.

Dr. John D. Herr, sup't., northwest district, Phila. Conference, has been appointed as director of this program, which has other phases than the financial campaign.

Fairless Hills and Levittown are two new communities where Methodism is now locating new churches. Expanded facilities, including sanctuaries and educational units, will be built in all areas of the two conferences, for building developments are not limited to any one section. A survey is being conducted by Dr. Frederick Shippey, of the Methodist Church, to determine the most strategic locations.

Discusses the Planning Of School Buildings

Dr. Oliver Heckman, Regional Sup't, Neshaminy Dis't, Speaks at Penndel

PENNDel, Jan. 17—Dr. Oliver Heckman, regional superintendent of Neshaminy school district, was the speaker Thursday evening at a meeting of Penndel Parent-Teacher Ass'n in the school building. Presiding was Curtis Loux, president.

The Rev. Lewis Moore, of Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, led in prayer.

Dr. Heckman, spoke on the "Planning School Buildings." Before bringing his subject to the audience, Dr. Heckman spoke briefly on a proposed cafeteria, which the local school board is trying to arrange for Penndel school. He advised that 126 pupils returned questionnaires that had been sent to parents. 100 expressed an interest in having their children eat lunch at the school; 20 mothers expressed an interest in doing whatever they could to help the program; 25 others who had small children said that if they knew in advance they would be very glad to help out at certain times.

It is a requirement that one meat, one vegetable, a "starch," a dessert and a bottle of milk, be served at each meal. The maximum charge for a lunch would be 25c. The school would be reimbursed by federal funds at the rate of 9c per meal. It is expected this program will get underway this term.

In discussing the subject of "Planning school buildings," Dr. Heckman brought out four subjects:

(1) Pupil population. He advised that in 1947-48, there were 1450 pupils in the district; 1952-53, 2550 pupils; 1957-58 it is estimated there will be 4300 pupils. This does not allow for children in new housing developments.

(2) Taxable wealth. (money to erect new buildings) State to contribute $300,000 in various forms. Another source of revenue, it was reported, the school might be eligible for.

Tullytown's Budget For 1953 Three Times That of Last Year

Council Submits Tentative Budget of $14,080 With Tax Rate of Six Mills

By Staff Reporter

TULLYTOWN, Jan. 17—Borough Council last night drew up a tentative $14,080 budget for 1953, three times the figure for last year. The tax rate, however, was held at six mills per $100.

The borough tax levy has been six mills for some 20 years, according to Councilman Arthur P. Leigh, chairman of the finance committee. He said revenue in the new budget will come from taxes on real estate and liquors, and for miscellaneous levies and fees.

Two open meetings will be held before the budget can be adopted. Council will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the fire station to read the budget, and it will then be displayed ten days at the home of Council Secretary, Fred Rentschler, Cheston avenue. The final reading will be held at the end of that period.

Council allotted $2,545 for this year's administrative expenses, as against $1,070 last year. Tax collection costs were estimated to rise from $175 to $555 this year, and the cost of police protection from $500 to $1,500.

The fire protection allotment this year is almost ten times that for 1952. It rose from $375 to $3,085. Street lighting funds were increased from $650 to $2,800, and the allocation for street repairs tripled from $1,000 to $3,000. Only two items, rent of the fire station and maintenance of the borough dump, do not show increased allotments.

The tentative $14,080 budget re-

AN ICE CAP REVEALS

Many persons have recently heard remarks such as these:

"A change in our climate is taking place . . . within the memory even of the middle-aged.
Snows are less frequent and less deep. They do not even lie, below the mountains, more than one, two or three days, and very rarely a week . . . The elderly inform me the earth used to be covered with snow about three months in every year. The rivers, which then seldom failed to freeze over in the course of the winter, scarcely ever do so now."

But that wasn't somebody talking in the early days of 1953. That was Thomas Jefferson in his "Notes on State of Va.", in 1781.
Jefferson did not offer any theory for the climatic changes so apparent in his time. In those days the study of tidal currents, glaciation and other factors was not advanced. Records of water levels and temperatures were too sparse to mean much. It falls to scientists like Rachel Carson in this era to survey a great new body of data and hypothesis and come up with sense-making statements based on facts.

In her best-selling "The Sea Around Us" she says flatly: "In our own lifetime we are witnessing a startling alteration of climate." Elsewhere she says: "We live in an age of rising seas."

What is the connection between the warming-up process and the rising water level? It is that as the polar ice cap recedes—as it is doing faster than ever in recent history—it releases enough water to raise the surface of the sea.

Science nowadays has enough geological and other evidence to know that what is happening is nothing new. Greenland had a fairly mild climate once, and will have it again. In the grand course of time much of this country may be under the ocean again, and emerge, and be flooded again.
Human and other life will be governed accordingly.

OFF THE INCOME TAX

This is the season when most people are poring over records and receipts in computing their federal income taxes. Contrary to popular belief, the tax collector is not the only party of the second part who takes an interest in this annual flurry of activity. Social service and welfare agencies, and other charitable organizations, sustained by private contributions also have a stake in the tax-filing process.

These latter are convinced that taxpayers, particularly corporations, have not used the charitable deduction clause to best advantage —specifically, for the benefit of the local community. It is held that the provision is too frequently regarded as a tax diminution measure rather than as a positive device to do constructive good.

Fuller utilization of this allowance, this school of thought contends, would give welfare and charitable agencies all the support they need at the local level without resort to outside tax aid.

Carries Red Roses, and Orchid At a Sacred Heart Wedding

CROYDON, Jan. 17 — A sacred heart wedding ceremony, performed by the Rev. Joseph Diamond in St. Thomas Aquinas R. C. Church, here, at five o'clock last evening, united Miss Dorothy P. Cullen and Mr. Richard G. Seifert.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Cullen, Bridgewater, was costumed in white. Her ballerina length dress was of nylon tulle; her long, white gloves and her cap were of satin, and from the latter was suspended a veil of heirloom lace. Slippers, too, were of satin; and the bride carried red roses with a white orchid at the center.

Her sole attendant was Mrs. Richard Guarro, Jenkintown, who was attired in pink nylon tulle, ballerina length, wore a pink satin cap, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of red roses.

Mr. Richard Guarro was best man for Mr. Seifert.

A reception for members of the immediate families was conducted last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Seifert, Fox Chase, parents of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds are enroute, by motor, to New England, for a week. The bride travelled in a royal blue suit, black accessories, and wore the orchid from her bouquet. Their place of residence will be Henning street, Fox Chase.

Mr. Seifert graduated from Taylor Business School, Phila.; his wife from Bensalem Twp. high school.

It would be a great help to all of us if we would just remember, as Bishop Brent used to say, "God is never still. In prayer it is not we who momentarily catch His attention, but He ours. So when we fail to hear His voice it is not because He is not speaking so much as that we are not listening."

America as of May, 1953, when the Synod meets in Phila. This decision is in accord with the policy of the Ministerium of Penna. Synod and the Central Penna. Synod, of which Zion Church is now a member.

Financial reports were presented by the societies and agencies of the local church showing that a total of over $15,000 had been received and disbursed for the year 1952 toward local, national and overseas mission work. Bowe Hangs Up New Scoring Record With 44 Points for Team

Jack Bowe established a new individual scoring record for Bristol High players last night as he connected for 44 points as Bristol High smothered Southampton High, 96-53, in a Lower Bucks County League game on the Bristol court.

Bowe broke the previous record of 42 set by a team mate, Bob Stroble, on December 18th against Lansdale. In scoring his 17 field goals, Bowe took thirty-one shots at the baskets, averaging better than 50%. From the foul mark, Bowe converted 10 of his eleven tries.

Bowe did not start off so good as he made but three fielders in the first quarter. But in the second, he hit for six and two fouls, giving him 20 points for the half. Three field and three foul was his total in the third session and he ended with 5 and 5 in the last quarter. Bowe dropped seven straight fouls through the hoop.

Russ Johnson, who entered the game in the second half scored four field goals in the last quarter to give him 10 points for the evening. For Southampton, Croft had 17 points.

The 96 points scored by Coach Ben Watson's minions represented a new high in Lower Bucks scoring for this season. They scored 20 in the first quarter, 26 in the second, 23 in the third, and 27 in the finale.

Bristol's mark for the season is now 6 and 3 with two Lower Bucks County victories. Southampton has won a Lower Bucks County League tilt and lost three.

The Bristol High Jayvees toyed with the Southampton Jayvees in chalking up a 60-34 win. The Junior Warriors led from the first quarter and in the second half registered 30 points while holding the visitors to 12.

Ed Burton and Sottile scored 15 and 13 points, respectively, for the winners with Pflaumer getting 11 Southampton points.

Shares Experiences

that the areas in Germany served are "needed" ones, where the folk "lacked everything," then he told of their delight in hearing a "voice of love from overseas."

It was in 1951 that Mr. Babbott participated in the experience at Dusseldorf, accompanying pupils from George School, Newtown, and from Germantown Friends School. Also at the work camp were students from France and Germany, all sharing in a necessary piece of work and in the experiences and back-grounds of each other.

The steady growth of the friendship movement which led to "affiliation" was included in the explanation, with letter-writing between students of the schools here and abroad being followed by the sending of "Care" packages to Germany, with portfolios of art work received in return. Then followed the setting up of work camps where young folks from this country helped dig water-supply trenches, church basements, week-end huts, etc. Transportation was on student ships, "crowded but lots of fun" as the speaker put it. During the long sea voyage of 10 days professors from five countries lectured in their particular fields. "We all felt the summer was more worth-while than were those spent just in travelling. We felt there was strength in affiliation when we lived in the homes with the students. How much those contacts meant!"

The psychological effect of the German people being able to give something in return—friendship and use of their homes—after being on the receiving end of gift packages was mentioned.

"We felt the work was important to the community, and it was satisfying to us." The teen-age pupils worked five hours a day; the evenings being divided between educational and recreational programs.

At the former, politics, general living conditions, customs of the groups from different countries were discussed. "There was singing all the time in the camps; with 'movies' and square dancing included." It was added that, naturally, all was not "peaches and cream." With France and Germany being enemies for so long there was friction between the nationalists of those two countries at times; and it irked the French that the Americans could not speak French. Then, too, there was resentment over Americans allegedly "trying to run the show." Mr. Babbott continued "It all made for a challenging and interesting camp."

We found that the seeds planted all during the season had come to flower in the final week. "Work camps give you a lot more than just travel. You have a job to do, and all have the same job to do. In a work camp you must stay in one place and you get to know your community, and become a part of it. You get a better perspective on international understanding. Real friendships are formed."

The speaker expressed his feeling that the high-light of each day was the period given over in Friend's style to meditation when each could "resolve the thoughts of the day, and recall what things had been done and what had been left undone that should have been done."

On display at the meeting were garments and dolls made from material sent to needy overseas during the past few years. This exhibit was on loan from the American Friends Service Committee. The club women were keenly interested as they had, as a group, sent a shipment of needles, thread, scissors, materials, etc., overseas a few years ago. One card with the doll display read: "Thanks from Austria. These dolls say thank you from Austrian girl apprentices in the Trade Union Rest Homes in Austria. Despite the ill health of the girls in one Trade Union rest home, they found the necessary energy and pieces of old clothing to make and dress 30 dolls."

The final of a trio of vocal solos by Wayne Zarr, baritone, "set the stage" as Mrs. Neher expressed it for the program of the day. This number was "One World" (O'Hara). Other solos were "I Attempt from Love Sickness to Fly" (Purcell) and "Velvet Shoes" (arr. Thompson). The accompanist was Miss Mary Lou Rice.

The prayer for peace was read by Mrs. A. Russell Burton.

The club president, Mrs. Robert D. Brooks, called upon Mrs. Frank Weik for minutes of the last meeting. It was announced that reports are to be sent to the country chairmen before Feb. 1st. An executive board meeting is scheduled for Jan. 23rd at two p. m. at the home of Mrs. Brooks.

gible for federal fund, in order to get this, an area must have 10% of its children or more come from homes where the parents are employed in industries that have 25% for war contracts. "It is hoped," stated Dr. Heckman, "that when Fairless Steel plant is in full operation and a census is made that Neshaminy district may be able to take advantage of this. There is property tax, per capita tax, personal tax, trailer taxes, real estate transfer tax, amusement tax." All these according to Dr. Heckman, are main source of income with which schools are maintained.

(3) Existing building facilities. In the Neshaminy school district, there are 16 different places where schools are housed—five are one-room structures; five are basement rooms; four are rented buildings.

(4) Public opinion. Dr. Heckman explained that the people will make the decision in the final analysis. The people will either support or criticize the board when it makes a forward step.

Dr. Heckman placed this challenge before the group "The schools will be what you want them to be. If you want schools that properly house the pupils, you will have them. If you are satisfied with make-shift classrooms, that is what you will have." In summarizing, he stated "we will need more buildings and it will mean more taxes."

Charles Baird, president of Penn-del board, brought the subject of the cafeteria to the group. A majority voted for it.

The group decided to sponsor a girl scout troop.

Mrs. Alfred Cote advised that fire companies in Parkland, Penn-del and Hulmeville will conduct a blood bank Feb. 4th in Parkland from two to seven p. m.

Refreshments were served to 35 by the hospitality committee. Mothers of 4th grade pupils donated cakes. Mrs. West's 5th grade won the $2 award for having the greatest percentage of parents present.

He was severely reprimanded by the Court for putting his brother's car in his name because the brother recently appeared in criminal court for drunken driving. "Do you realize that you committed perjury?" Judge Keller asked the defendant.

"Your whole trouble is that you are living beyond your income and you need more money than you were earning and you began stealing. You can't afford TV, a record player and a car."

TWO ATTRACTIVE FEATURES OF SENATOR MARTIN'S OFFICE

Shown above is Mrs. Luella M. Boesch, who has been Senator Edward Martin's private secretary not only at his Washington office but prior to that during his term as governor and as auditor general at Harrisburg. On the wall behind her is a striking collection of historic Pennsylvania scenes.

his staff. Vast quantities of mail flow into the office, and the telephone is busy throughout the day.

Senator Martin has had a spectacularly successful career in two different fields.

As a military man he began as a private during the Spanish-American War, and rose through the ranks to major general. He fought in the thick of battle on many occasions, being wounded and gassed in action, and decorated many times, including being twice awarded the Distinguished Service Cross.

In politics he also started at the bottom and held virtually every political post in the book, including auditor general, state treasurer, adjutant general and Governor, before moving on to the U. S. Senate. He was chairman of the Republican State Committee for six years. In twelve major statewide political campaigns he has never been beaten.

Associated with Senator Martin as Administrative Assistant is the Hon. George I. Bloom, of Washington, Pa., who was Secretary to the Governor during Martin's term as chief executive at Harrisburg.

Mr. Bloom, an attorney, is a public speaker of some note. He has appeared before Bucks County audiences.

Among others who went to the national capitol from Harrisburg with Senator Martin are his private secretary, Mrs. Luella M. Boesch, of Harrisburg, and his publicity representative, Charles N. Kapnick, of Philadelphia.

A feature of Senator Martin's office is his collection of pictures dealing with both personal and historical matters. The Senator owns two complete sets of the famous Currier and Ives series of U. S. Presidents, one of which is on a wall in his private office. Also displayed there is a great number of inscribed photographs of all the principal military figures of the United States for the past half century.

Many historical and scenic views of Pennsylvania are shown in the other offices.

Much of the prestige which Senator Martin enjoys in Washington and especially in the current session rises from the fact that on most occasions he enjoys the solid backing not only of the bulk of the Pennsylvania Congressional delegation, but of a number of other Representatives who have associated themselves with the Keystone group.

Dean of this group is Congressman Richard M. Simpson, of Huntington, who has risen to a position of much importance in the House of Representatives. He will be the subject of Monday's article.

fects the construction of a part of Levittown in the borough during the past year. Leigh said the population of Tullytown rose last year from 658 to an estimated 2,000 persons.

Council President Nicholas M. Eberle directed various committees to make inspections and report at the next regular meeting.

The police and street committees will tour Levittown tomorrow, and look for spots to erect 25 stop signs Council has purchased.

Burgess Walter Strouse said he would make inquiries for the possible location of several chemical fire extinguishers in homes in Levittown. The Burgess said the borough had placed 42 extinguishers in spots in the older part of town. "I've seen many a fire put out with those extinguishers before the fire company had a chance to arrive," he said.

Attending the meeting, with the burgess and council president, were Councilmen Leigh, John Lucisano, Michael Pirolli, Joseph Cutchineal and Albert Fleehy.
